Terra String Quartet
Friday, August 21st from 2-3 PM
This event is FREE and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC- No Ticket Required!
Winners of the 2025 Naumburg Chamber Music Competition and recent prizewinners at the 2025 Bordeaux and Wigmore Hall International Quartet Competitions, the Terra String Quartet is a vibrant young international ensemble based in New York City. They are composed of graduates of The Juilliard School, The New England Conservatory, Harvard University, and the Curtis Institute of Music. Known for their sincere storytelling, commitment to artistic excellence, and versatile approach to repertoire, TSQ strives to foster conversation and genuine human connection through their performances and pedagogy.
Join us for this event at the Wesleyan Chapel, located at the Women's Rights National Historical Park (136 Fall Street).

Corn & soybean insights, equipment demos, and real connections—join us at the Summer Crop Summit.
The New York Corn & Soybean Growers Summer Crop Summit is part of the New York Ag Showcase, bringing together growers, industry partners, and researchers for two days of connection and insight in Seneca Falls.
This event highlights corn and soybean production across New York with timely, relevant topics shaped by grower leaders. Expect practical takeaways you can bring back to your operation, along with opportunities to connect with industry partners and fellow growers.
Sponsors will have equipment and displays onsite throughout the event, giving you the chance to see products up close, ask questions, and explore solutions that fit your operation.
Join us on August 12 for a full day of education, networking, and on-farm learning—then extend your experience into Day 2 of the Ag Showcase with New York Soil Health's Field Day on August 13.

Women of Glass and Steel: The Seneca Knitting Mill in History and Fiction
Saturday, August 22nd at 2 PM
In this dynamic presentation, SFHS Executive Director Jonathan Monfietto shares the history of the Seneca Knitting Mill and the community and people that it impacted throughout its more than 150 years of operation and how the knitting mill continues to impact the community and people of Seneca Falls. In the same vein, author Mary Lash shares the story behind the real locations in her historical novel "Women of Glass and Steel" and the characters - some real - in her book and how the community of Seneca Falls, past and present, has influenced her life and writing.
This program takes place in the dining room of the Becker Mansion, located at 55 Cayuga St. in Seneca Falls. Admission costs $8 for SFHS members and $10 for nonmembers, and registration in advance is welcome but not required.
